What’s on in London, 9–11 October

Pharrell Williams
• Dates: Thursday & Friday, 9 & 10 October
• Venue: O2 Arena, Peninsula Square
• Start time: 6.30 p.m.
• www.theo2.co.uk

Redefining cool for a new generation, Pharrell Williams is a creative force, using music, fashion, and design to express his distinctive style. From his beginnings as a teenage prodigy and multi-instrumentalist in Virginia Beach back in the early ’90s, through enough hits to earn him Billboard’s Producer of the Decade in 2010, to his current status as multi-media superstar, Williams has never stopped creating. Starting his producing career as one half of The Neptunes with Chad Hugo, Williams has helped create such classics as Daft Punk’s “Get Lucky,” Robin Thicke’s “Blurred Lines,” Nelly’s “Hot in Herre,” Jay-Z’s “I Just Wanna Love U (Give it 2 Me),” Britney Spears’s “I’m A Slave 4 U,” and Justin Timberlake’s “Like I Love You.” With over 100 million copies of his productions sold, his music sounds like something no one else has thought of just yet.

Turner Prize 2014
• Date & Time: Daily/10 a.m. – 6 p.m.
• Venue: Tate Britain, Millbank
• www.tate.org.uk

The Turner Prize award is £40,000 with £25,000 going to the winner and £5,000 each for the other shortlisted artists. The Prize, established in 1984, is awarded to a British artist under fifty for an outstanding exhibition or other presentation of their work in the twelve months preceding 17 April 2014. It is intended to promote public discussion of new developments in contemporary British art and is widely recognised as one of the most important and prestigious awards for the visual arts in Europe.

Bond in Motion
• Date & Time: Daily/10 a.m. – 6 p.m.
• Venue: London Film Museum, 45 Wellington Street

James Bond first hit the big screen in 1962, when Ian Fleming’s 007 was introduced to cinema audiences around the world as the double o agent in Dr No. Half a century and six Bonds later, the franchise is now one of the longest running in cinema history. In the main exhibition space the numerous vehicles on display include the archetypal Bond car, the Aston Martin DB5, Goldfin-gger’s majestic Rolls-Royce Phantom III and the unforgettable Lotus Esprit S1 submersible from The Spy Who Loved Me. Displayed alongside less predictable 007 modes of transport such as the Citroën 2CV and the Crocodile Submarine the exhibition also includes a variety of aircraft, boats and motorcycles.

Photo courtesy Urban Food Fest
• Date & Time: Saturday, 11 October/5 p.m. – midnight
• Venue: Euro Car Parks, 30 Dorset Square
• www.urbanfoodfest.com

Nominated as The Best Street Food Event at The British Street Food Awards and Number 1 on Time Out London’s Hot List, this weekly gathering turns the Euro Car Parks at 30 Dorset Square in a street food extravaganza. The delicacies, ranging from hot dogs to fried frog legs, are served not just from regular stalls but from converted horse-boxes or Thai tuk tuks, among other things.

Photo courtesy Urban Food Fest

Turner Prize 2014
• Date & Time: Daily/10 a.m. – 6 p.m.
• Venue: Tate Britain, Millbank
• www.tate.org.uk

The Turner Prize award is £40,000 with £25,000 going to the winner and £5,000 each for the other shortlisted artists. The Prize, established in 1984, is awarded to a British artist under fifty for an outstanding exhibition or other presentation of their work in the twelve months preceding 17 April 2014. It is intended to promote public discussion of new developments in contemporary British art and is widely recognised as one of the most important and prestigious awards for the visual arts in Europe.

Bond in Motion
• Date & Time: Daily/10 a.m. – 6 p.m.
• Venue: London Film Museum, 45 Wellington Street

James Bond first hit the big screen in 1962, when Ian Fleming’s 007 was introduced to cinema audiences around the world as the double o agent in Dr No. Half a century and six Bonds later, the franchise is now one of the longest running in cinema history. In the main exhibition space the numerous vehicles on display include the archetypal Bond car, the Aston Martin DB5, Goldfin-gger’s majestic Rolls-Royce Phantom III and the unforgettable Lotus Esprit S1 submersible from The Spy Who Loved Me. Displayed alongside less predictable 007 modes of transport such as the Citroën 2CV and the Crocodile Submarine the exhibition also includes a variety of aircraft, boats and motorcycles.

Photo courtesy Urban Food Fest
• Date & Time: Saturday, 11 October/5 p.m. – midnight
• Venue: Euro Car Parks, 30 Dorset Square
• www.urbanfoodfest.com

Nominated as The Best Street Food Event at The British Street Food Awards and Number 1 on Time Out London’s Hot List, this weekly gathering turns the Euro Car Parks at 30 Dorset Square in a street food extravaganza. The delicacies, ranging from hot dogs to fried frog legs, are served not just from regular stalls but from converted horse-boxes or Thai tuk tuks, among other things.

Photo courtesy Urban Food Fest