Welcome to the Dental World 2010 exhibition!

Vegetária, V. Cukor utca 3
Just off Ferenciek tere (noon to 10 p.m. daily), is a full-service vegetarian restaurant with a comprehensive English menu that includes some macrobiotic items.

Café Déryné, I. Kristian tér 3
One of the most charming café-restos in Budapest. An ideal place after work or to sit in after or before a walk up/down the Castle hill to the Royal Palace or if you decided to walk through the Tunnel on foot.

If you’re not discouraged by the prospect of spending something like 5000 Ft per person for dinner, Gundel, next to the zoo directly behind the Museum of Fine Arts at XIV Allatkerületi út 2 (metro: Széchenyi Furdő), is probably Budapest’s fanciest restaurant, with a tradition dating back to 1894. Bagolyvár, Gundel’s little sister next door.

Which bath to go?
The closest bath to the Dental World 2010 is the Széchenyi Spa, a large hot water bath-house in the main city park. The two other large spas are the Gellért, a very exclusive Art Nouveau facility near the river or the Lukács, also on the Buda side of the town. If you prefer to go to Turkish baths, try out the Rudas or Király spas.

Mass transit
If you are planning to use the mass transit a lot, we recommend you to get a Budapest card. This will allow you free transportation for 3 or 5 days and offer sight discounts in many of the cities museums, restaurants and spas. These cards can be bought at the ticket offices of the underground system.

Cab drivers
Most of the cab drivers are honest and nice people; however, some of them might exploit some of the tourist.

Sightseeing
We recommend taking the services of some of the sightseeing companies who offer tours in the city. What you should definitely not miss is the Castle and the downtown. If you have the opportunity to catch the sunset during a river cruise - one of the most spectacular sights our city can offer.

We would like to offer some recommendations for you: where to go, where to eat or what to see during your stay in Budapest. Budapest is a safe, nice city with inhabitants famous of their hospitality and we have many to offer you both in terms of sights and experience.

This time of the year, the Indian Summer is maybe one of the most popular times to visit Budapest. One of the oldest and most reliable restaurants in the city, the famous Hungarian composer Ferenc Liszt, a bar and a lounge, and it is one of the best meeting places. The menu and the food cover a lot, we recommend you to get a Budapest card.

Which bath to go?
The closest bath to the Dental World 2010 is the Széchenyi Spa, a large hot water bath-house in the main city park. The two other large spas are the Gellért, a very exclusive Art Nouveau facility near the river or the Lukács, also on the Buda side of the town. If you prefer to go to Turkish baths, try out the Rudas or Király spas.

Mass transit
If you are planning to use the mass transit a lot, we recommend you to get a Budapest card. This will allow you free transportation for 3 or 5 days and offer sight discounts in many of the cities museums, restaurants and spas. These cards can be bought at the ticket offices of the underground system.

Cab drivers
Most of the cab drivers are honest and nice people; however, some of them might exploit some of the tourist.

Sightseeing
We recommend taking the services of some of the sightseeing companies who offer tours in the city. What you should definitely not miss is the Castle and the downtown. If you have the opportunity to catch the sunset during a river cruise - one of the most spectacular sights our city can offer.

Vegetária, V. Cukor utca 3
Just off Ferenciek tere (noon to 10 p.m. daily), is a full-service vegetarian restaurant with a comprehensive English menu that includes some macrobiotic items.

Café Déryné, I. Kristian tér 3
One of the most charming café-restos in Budapest. An ideal place after work or to sit in after or before a walk up/down the Castle hill to the Royal Palace or if you decided to walk through the Tunnel on foot.

If you’re not discouraged by the prospect of spending something like 5000 Ft per person for dinner, Gundel, next to the zoo directly behind the Museum of Fine Arts at XIV Allatkerületi út 2 (metro: Széchenyi Furdő), is probably Budapest’s fanciest restaurant, with a tradition dating back to 1894. Bagolyvár, Gundel’s little sister next door.

Which bath to go?
The closest bath to the Dental World 2010 is the Széchenyi Spa, a large hot water bath-house in the main city park. The two other large spas are the Gellért, a very exclusive Art Nouveau facility near the river or the Lukács, also on the Buda side of the town. If you prefer to go to Turkish baths, try out the Rudas or Király spas.

Mass transit
If you are planning to use the mass transit a lot, we recommend you to get a Budapest card. This will allow you free transportation for 3 or 5 days and offer sight discounts in many of the cities museums, restaurants and spas. These cards can be bought at the ticket offices of the underground system.

Cab drivers
Most of the cab drivers are honest and nice people; however, some of them might exploit some of the tourist.

Sightseeing
We recommend taking the services of some of the sightseeing companies who offer tours in the city. What you should definitely not miss is the Castle and the downtown. If you have the opportunity to catch the sunset during a river cruise - one of the most spectacular sights our city can offer.