Scenes from Tuesday

Dan Dezak, left, and Dawn Petit of NSK (booth No. 2036).

Frank Cortes of Directa AB (booth No. 2332).

Tony Aguilar of PhotoMed International (booth No. 5001).

Dr. Joseph M. McManus Jr., left, and E. Scott Weinberger of Henry Schein Dental (booth No. 3532).

Paul Berezny, left, and Kevin Maidy of SS White (booth No. 2000).

Christopher Uts, left, and Sam Turner of Coltene (booth No. 3424).

Josh Coe, left, and Jennifer Gibson of the American Association of Endodontists (booth No. 2439).

Meeting attendees line up for the presentation at Crest Oral B (booth No. 4229).

Photos/ Fred Michmershuizen, today Staff
Dr. Andrew W. Krieger, left, visits with Jeff Jones of Technology4Medicine (booth No. 3019).

Jim Hooper of Planmeca USA (booth No. 2004).

Petty Officer Riza M. Villar of U.S. Navy Recruiting (booth No. 4616) says the benefits of practicing dentistry in the Navy are many. ‘The Navy allows you to concentrate on the things that drive you — helping others, expanding expertise and gaining uncommon experience,’ she said.

Brandon Edgerton of Digital Sign ID (booth No. 1705).

John Harris, from left and Mark Montgomery in TruDenta’s booth, No. 3302, have 100 free copies of ‘Understanding, Assessing and Treating Dentomandibular Sensorimotor Dysfunction’ to hand out every morning. Montgomery is co-author. (Photo/Robert Selleck, today Staff)

In the Mydent International booth, Lesa Righenhagen, from left, learns about the Dreumex Omnicare hand-cleaning/sanitizing system from Andy Parker, Phil Armijo, Katharina Urban-Versluis and Meagan Wallace. (Photo/Robert Selleck, today Staff)

Aren’t they cute? Josh Cirillo, left, and Robert Biolo of Microbrush International (booth No. 510) with Microbear tooth fairy bears. The furry toys aren’t bad looking, either.

Dr. Gordon Christensen speaks during a Tuesday morning seminar at the GNTDM. (Photo/Carlo Messina, FX Video & Photography)

Ron Barsotti of Recall System Pro (booth No. 4431).