The first day of the Greater New York Dental Meeting’s exhibit hall featured a kid-friendly extravaganza of face painting, games and music for the meeting’s mini attendees.

Award-winning children’s recording artist Patricia Shih and her band, Cool Daddy, headlined the event with ballads such as “We’re All Different Colors of the Rainbow” and “Hungry!” They even ushered a child — or sometimes several — on stage during performances.

Up next, colorfully clad stilt walkers and performers elevated the fun to new heights with leaps and jumps, leaving adults and children spellbound. Finally, a carnival capped off the afternoon, complete with an indoor obstacle course, spin art, a jumbo slide and a climbing wall.
