Jonathan Davis is best known as lead vocalist and frontman of the band Korn. The American singer has recorded 11 studio albums and toured the world with Korn, who stood at the forefront of the nu-metal movement with their successful album Follow the Leader (1998). Now he has gone solo and is due to present his debut album Black Labyrinth, which came out on 25 May, live in Amsterdam. Davis previously said that he worked on the album for ten years and was pleased to finally release his first solo project to the world.

World Press Photo Exhibition
Venue and location: De Nieuwe Kerk, Dam Square
Opening times: Fri & Sat noon–1:00

In 1955, a group of Dutch photographers organized an international contest (World Press Photo) to expose their work to a global audience. Since then, the contest has grown into the world’s most prestigious photography competition and, through its successful worldwide exhibition programme, presents the winning stories to millions of people. For six decades, the World Press Photo Foundation has been working from its home in Amsterdam as a creative, independent, non-profit organization and is again exhibiting the most impressive photographs from around the world until 22 July.

Sloterpark
Address: President Allendelaan 3

At around 90 hectares, the Sloterpark is one of the largest parks in Amsterdam and offers many fun things to do. With bike rentals, an urban beach, swimming pools, gym facilities, a disc golf course, neighbourhood barbecues, a small zoo, live music performances, dance parties and a lot of greenery, Sloterpark is the perfect recreational spot for tired congress attendees who want to relax after a long day at EuroPerio.
